

Nov. 1 is the first day that ETV's Ready to Vote (RTV) website is open. Students can cast straw vote for the gubernatorial race. The results of the student straw poll will be announced on election night on ETV. Go to readytovote.org and click on the "Vote Online Now" link.

And, don't forget about this important program on November 2!

Project Discovery - Ready to Vote: Citizenship At Work

Nov. 2, 1:00-2:00 p.m. ETV open circuit and channel 301

Repeats Nov. 3 and 6, 10:30-11:30 a.m. Channel 301 (Unlimited rights)

We invite your middle and high school students to:

- Access RTV Web site to cast straw vote and find key RTV information
- Participate in LIVE program November 2, 1:00 p.m. Call in questions to 1-800-763-ETV1

The ETV Ready to Vote (RTV) Web site on Knowitall.org can be a big asset to students who want to learn more about the voting process. The site includes a brief history of voting, lists the statewide candidates, provides a moderated message board, and promotes citizenship.

As part of the valuable resources ETV and ITV are providing to promote student involvement in the election process, Project Discovery for November will be Ready To Vote: Citizenship At Work. Broadcast LIVE from ETV's Rock Hill Regional Station, this program that is designed for middle and high school students will be hosted by ETV's Andrew Gobeil, Director of Public Affairs Programming.

Special guests include Dr. Blease Graham, Professor of Political Science at USC, who will provide interesting perspectives on the historical aspects of South Carolina politics, and Representative Joe Neal, District 70-Richland and Sumter, Senator Jim Ritchie, District 13-Greenville, Spartanburg and Union Counties. Students from Rock Hill High School and Northwestern High School will participate in the studio and students statewide are invited to call in questions toll free at 1-800-763-ETV1 (3881).

Beginning November 1, students can participate in a straw vote poll that will close at 5:00 p.m. on Election Day. Go to readytovote.org and click on the "Vote Online Now" link.
